APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION FOR HOME SCHOOLING

An application to register a child to be home schooled must be made using the prescribed form from the Education Training and Reform Regulations 2007.

INFORMATION FOR COMPLETING THE APPLICATION FORM

You must provide the name and address of each parent responsible for the home schooling of the child. A parent includes a guardian and any person who has parental responsibility for the child under the Family Law Act of the Commonwealth and any person with whom a child normally or regularly resides.

Any parent responsible for home schooling must disclose if there is any order of a court or a tribunal, or any enforceable agreement that prevents access to the child.

The parent who will be responsible for the home schooling of the child must sign the application.

You must provide evidence of the child's birth date when you send in the form. Satisfactory evidence can include a copy of an original birth certificate, or an extract of birth or a note from a doctor who can attest to the child's age.

Details of students registered for home schooling will not be made public.
